Crucified

The long-awaited new single «Crucified» from FEATHERLIKE is here!!

FEATHERLIKE, the indie-pop-band with proper rock-appeal mix their sound with New Wave and long forgotten Brit-Pop. A catchy three-minutes song always nicely heading towards the final straight! Then what? You've got to play it again anyway, but this time, listen to the lyrics.

FEATHERLIKE always stand for decent stories written by real life: Quirky, sometimes funny or bizarre, but always far from being clichéd. «Crucified» is a musical insinuation about corrupt politicians, ignorant tycoons («...deaf, dumb and blind..») and dirty money («...black dollar bills...»). Not exactly funny stuff, though melted together with a bittersweet and snappy tune.

«Crucified» is the first single from the forthcoming FEATHERLIKE album «Luxuria» that will be released in September 2011.

After touring Germany and playing gigs with bands like Polarkreis 18, Mando Diao, Die Fantastischen 4 etc., FEATHERLIKE will be playing some festivals in Summer before touring the new album «Luxuria» in autumn 2011.
